

Vigil of Easter

April 8, 2023

Easter Vigil Explanation

By most ancient tradition, this is the night of keeping vigil (that is, “keeping watch”) for the Lord (Ex 12: 42) as the Passover in Egypt finds its fulfillment in the Passover of the Lord’s resurrection from the dead. Here the faithful, with lighted lamps or candles in their hands, rehearse the Gospel admonition in Luke 12: 35-37: “Let your waists be girded and your lamps burning; and you yourselves be like men who wait for their master, when he will return from the wedding, that when he comes and knocks they may open to him immediately. Blessed are those servants whom the master, when he comes, will find watching. Assuredly, I say to you that he will gird himself and have them sit down to eat, and will come and serve them.”

The Easter Vigil is arranged in such a way that, after the Liturgy of Light and Easter Proclamation (Part 1), the Church meditates on the wonders the Lord God has done for His people from the beginning, trusting in His word and promise (Part 2) until, as day approaches, with new members reborn in Baptism and with all members remembering their Baptism (Part 3), the Church is called to the table the Lord has prepared for His people (Part 4), the memorial of His death and resurrection until He comes again, and the foretaste of the eternal banquet to which all the faithful are invited. Thus we are reminded to keep watch for the Lord’s return by meditating on His wondrous works of salvation, by praying, and by receiving the ministry of His Word and Sacraments.

Rev. Paul A. Rydecki, Pastor
member of the Confessional Lutheran Ministerium

SERVICE OF LIGHT

All gather at the church door. Candles are given to all, later to be lit from the paschal candle.

P In the name of the Father and of the Son ✠ and of the Holy Spirit.

C Amen.

The pastor addresses the congregation and says the prayer. The congregation answers:

C Amen.

P Christ Jesus, the same yesterday, today, and forever, the beginning and the ending,

...the Alpha and the Omega.

...His are time and eternity; His are the glory and dominion, now and forever.

...By His wounds we are healed both now and forever. Amen.

Then, lighting the paschal candle, he says:

P May the light of Christ, who is risen in glory from the dead, scatter all the darkness of our hearts and minds.

Let us pray.

After the prayer, the congregation answers:

C Amen.

All light their candles from the paschal candle and then follow the candle bearer in procession into the church. At the entrance, the candle bearer stops and raises the paschal candle. The pastor chants:

P The light of Christ.

C Thanks be to God.

Halfway to the altar, the candle bearer stops. The pastor chants for the second time:

P The light of Christ.

C Thanks be to God.

When the candle bearer arrives at the candle stand, he faces the congregation and lifts the candle high. The pastor chants the third time:

P The light of Christ.

C Thanks be to God.

After the candle bearer places the paschal candle in its stand, the pastor chants the Easter Proclamation (Exsultet).
