
ANNOUNCEMENTS

Welcome! Emmanuel is an independent, liturgical, traditional, historical, evangelical, catholic, orthodox, confessional Lutheran congregation. We believe that the Bible is the very Word of God, inspired and without any errors. We confess the truth of Scripture according to the Lutheran Book of Concord of 1580, without exception or reservation. We observe the calendar of the traditional Church Year and follow the Historic Lectionary. We celebrate the Divine Service (also known as the Mass) every Sunday and on other festivals, and we welcome visitors to hear God's Word with us.

With regard to Holy Communion, we believe that the Scriptures teach us to practice closed Communion, which means that only communicant members of our congregation or of other congregations in communion with us are invited to commune at the Lord's Table here, after they have been examined and absolved. Classes are offered throughout the year by the pastor so that those who are interested in becoming communicant members have the opportunity to learn about the Christian faith and our confession of it.

The Order of Service is printed in this booklet. The Propers (the parts that change from week to week) are noted in the Service Insert. Unless otherwise noted, the hymns are found in the red hymnal (The Lutheran Hymnal).

The Season of Lent: The season of Lent originated in the earliest days of the Christian church as a forty-day fast from the Wednesday after Quinquagesima through Holy Saturday (not counting the intervening Sundays), commemorating Jesus' own forty-day fast in the wilderness as He faced and defeated the devil's temptations for us. The Scripture readings in Lent highlight Jesus' battles against the devil on our behalf, culminating in His suffering and death on the cross, showing Him to be a mighty Champion who shares His victory with all who trust in Him. Thus Christ and His saving work on our behalf is the focus of this season, and of every season.

At the same time, Lent is a time for Christians to reflect on the importance of living in daily repentance and faith. This includes self-examination, to ensure we are not in any way living in rebellion against God or contrary to His Word. It also includes a renewed determination to pray and to hear and meditate on God's Word. Finally, it is a most fitting time for Christians to do works of charity and mercy. In order to concentrate on these things, some Christians have found it helpful to practice fasting or other forms of bodily discipline. But the Lutheran Church recognizes that such things are not commanded by God, leaving Christians free to fast or not to fast, to eat meat or to abstain from it. In any case, Lent is not about giving something up for God. It is about standing in awe of all that Christ our Savior gave up for us that we might be saved.

THE CONFESSION & ABSOLUTION

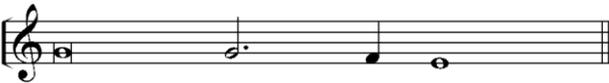

1 Jn. 1:9, Jn. 20:21-23

For baptized and penitent Christians to make confession and receive absolution.

P Beloved in the Lord, having been baptized into the most holy name of the blessed Trinity, it is good and right that we should make confession of our sins before our merciful Father in heaven. Let us, therefore, draw near with a true heart, in sincere repentance and genuine faith, and confess our sins, seeking His mercy and forgiveness for the sake of His beloved Son, our Lord Jesus Christ.

V Our help is in the name of the Lord,

Ps. 24:8

R Who made heaven and earth.

V I said, I will confess my transgressions unto the Lord,

Ps. 32:5

R And You forgave the iniquity of my sin.

C O Almighty God, merciful Father, I confess to You that I am by nature sinful and unclean, and that I have sinned against You in my thoughts, words, and deeds. For this I deserve nothing but Your wrath and punishment. But I am truly sorry for all my sins, and trusting only in Your beloved Son, Jesus Christ, I pray: Lord, have mercy on me, a sinner.

P God, our heavenly Father, gave His only-begotten Son, Jesus Christ, to be the atoning sacrifice for the sins of the world, and has promised the forgiveness of sins to all who repent and believe in Jesus. Therefore, to all of you who are truly penitent and believing and intend to order your life according to God's commandments, I declare, as a called and ordained minister of the Christian Church: Your sins are forgiven you, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

THE NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible.

And in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only-begotten Son of God, begotten of His Father before all ages, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one substance with the Father; through whom all things were made; who, for us men and for our salvation, came down from heaven, and was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary, and was made man; and was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate. He suffered and was buried; and the third day He rose again according to the Scriptures; and ascended into heaven; and sits at the right hand of the Father. And He will come again with glory to judge both the living and the dead; whose kingdom will have no end.

And I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord and Giver of Life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son together is worshiped and glorified, who spoke by the Prophets. And I believe one holy Christian and Apostolic Church. I acknowledge one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins, and I look for the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Let Me Now with Gladness Say It

Lasset mich voll Freuden sprechen

Tr. Paul A. Rydecki, 2026

Baptized Christian

1 Let me now with glad-ness say it: I'm a bap-tized Chris-tian!
2 Now no sin shall make me fear-ful. I'm a bap-tized Chris-tian!
3 Sa - tan, hear, I now de - cry you! I'm a bap-tized Chris-tian!

And though sight may not con-vey it, I'm one of God's chil - dren.
Now my heart is ev - er cheer-ful, Safe in this con - vic - tion:
With this truth I can de - fy you, Greet you with de - ri - sion.

How could all earth's rich - es cheer me When I have this trea-sure near me
I, from guilt and shame un - end - ing, By Bap - ti - sm's ho - ly cleans - ing
Now that I've come to Bap - ti - sm, Vain is all your cri - ti - ci - sm.

Which from death de - liv - ers me, And saves me e - ter - nal - ly?
Have been par - doned and set free, For Christ's blood has sprink - led me.
God's own co - ve - nant makes me Free from all your ty - ran - ny.

4 When I'm dying I'll declare it:
I'm a baptized Christian!
For I know I'll soon inherit
All the joys of heaven.
Though the sleep of death o'ertake me,
One day soon my God will wake me,
For Baptism's pow'r divine,
Shall restore this flesh of mine.

5 Neither life nor death shall ever
Trouble or confound me,
For Baptism has forever
To my Savior bound me.
Though my flesh and heart be failing,
Still my hope shall be prevailing:
I'm baptized, with Christ I'm dressed,
I shall be forever blessed!
